

House Resolution No. 1250

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who admirably prepare students for future roles as societal leaders through high standards of conduct and performance; and

Whereas, Jessica Lutman is the Library Media Specialist at Clardy Elementary School in the North Kansas City School District who has attained considerable distinction for her successful efforts to make the library media program the heart of the school's learning environment; and

Whereas, an educator for the past six years, Jessica Lutman has served as the Clardy Elementary School Library Media Specialist for three years; and

Whereas, during Jessica Lutman's service as Library Media Specialist, the program at Clardy Elementary School has grown phenomenally thanks in large measure to her having boundless energy, embracing technology, and using a computer Smart Board in connection with PowerPoint software to enliven her student's learning environment; and

Whereas, Jessica Lutman is a graduate of Truman High School who furthered her education by successfully pursuing a liberal arts degree and a Bachelor's degree in elementary education from the University of Missouri-Kansas City and a Master's in school counseling at Northwest Missouri State University and by currently completing an Educational Specialist degree at Central Missouri State University; and

Whereas, on April 18, 2004, Clardy Elementary School will enhance its already stellar reputation when it receives the 2004 Progressive School Library Media Program Award from the Missouri Association of School Librarians at that organization's spring conference at Tan-Tar-A at centrally located Lake of the Ozarks:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the ongoing career accomplishments garnered by Library Media Specialist Jessica Lutman during the past three years and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon the selection of Clardy Elementary School for the 2004 Progressive School Library Media Program Award from the Missouri Association of School Librarians; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Jessica Lutman of Clardy Elementary School in the North Kansas City School District.
